FACULTY OF COMMERCE AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Probationary Regular Instructor Business Economics (Shanghai and Harbin)

Competition Number: 2010-011F

External Posting

Douglas College, in partnership with the Shanghai Institute of Foreign Trade in Shanghai (SIFT) and the Heilongjiang Institute of Science and Technology in Harbin (HIST), offers a four-year BBA degree in financial markets and investment management.

The Faculty of Commerce and Business Administration invites applications for a full-time Business Economics instructor to teach in our China programs, commencing with the Fall 2010 semester. The language of instruction is English.

The successful applicant must be legally entitled to work in Canada and meet the following criteria:

- A Masters degree in Business or Economics or equivalent academic credential. Preference will be given to candidates with a PhD.
- Ability to teach advanced courses including Econometrics
- Ability to teach others for whom English is not a first language
- Excellent communication skills and willingness to work cooperatively in a team setting
- Good interpersonal skills with an emphasis on intercultural communications
- All Douglas College first-time faculty appointments include a two-year probationary period.
- Instructors must be able to teach at either partner institution.

Preference will be given to candidates with a proven track record of teaching at the post-secondary level and relevant industry experience.

Douglas College employees posted in China are provided with a supplemental compensation package that includes accommodation and other considerations.

APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED UNTIL THE POSITION IS FILLED. Please apply in writing, quote the competition number, include supporting educational documentation, letters of reference and forward to:
