Competition Number: 2012-008F

Internal/External Posting

The Philosophy and Humanities Department at Douglas College invites applicants for a full-time probationary position in philosophy beginning in the Fall of 2012. This position is on-going pending budgetary approval. AOS is open, and AOC is in applied ethics and critical thinking. The Department is seeking candidates with a broad philosophical background.

Applicants should have demonstrated experience in, and commitment to, undergraduate teaching. Teaching load is 4 sections per semester. Completed Ph.D. in Philosophy is strongly preferred, but applicants who are ABD in philosophy may be considered. Applicants must forward a CV, along with letters of reference, as well as course evaluations and materials.

It is the responsibility of all interested applicants to ensure that a current resume and cover letter is received by the Human Resources department. This position will remain open until filled with a first review date of March 31, 2012. Please apply in writing, quote the completion number, included supporting educational documentation, letters of reference and forward to:
