

Bob Bearpark Foundation Coaching Award
Douglas College Sport Science Department

The Bob Bearpark Foundation has been established to further coaching education in British Columbia. The Foundation is named in memory of Bob Bearpark who was a coach and provincial government administrator in BC and architected the coaching development system in this province. Selection criteria for the four (4) awards are:

1. The recipient of the $1,000 award will be chosen from the BPEC or Sport Science Diploma program. Recipient must:
 - a) Exhibit a commitment to coaching education and demonstrate a positive involvement in community sport.
 - b) Be considered a "top student" in their respective year of their program by faculty members.

2. The recipients of the three (3) $500 awards are to be chosen from the BPEC program only. One to a 2nd year student, one to a 3rd year student and one to a 4th year (graduating) student. Recipients must:
 - a) Exhibit a commitment to coaching education and demonstrate a positive involvement in community sport.
 - b) Be considered a "top student" in their respective year of their program by faculty members.
