

In Memory of David Still

The David Still Memorial Scholarship has been established in memory of David Still, an accomplished interpreter educator and esteemed leader in the sign language interpreting community across Canada. David passed away suddenly in the summer of 2009.

David's commitment to his profession was demonstrated by his relentless work to establish standards in ASL/English interpreting. He was a man of passion who inspired others to find theirs. David was a wonderful, caring person who was a mentor, instructor and friend to many. He will be deeply missed.
