

Recreation Therapy Aide
Casual Hours
Holyrood Manor, Maple Ridge, BC

Apply By: February 29, 2012

Responsibilities

- Assist in the planning, organization and implementation of meaningful programs for the facility residents, in collaboration with the Recreation Manager;
- Maintains effective communication and good human relations with residents, families, volunteers and staff;
- Attends in-service education in order to keep informed of current trends in the total care of the elderly;
- Participates in team meetings to plan programs with resident's interest in mind;
- Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications

- Recreation Therapy experience in continuing care working with seniors with physical and cognitive impairment is considered an asset;
- Must be able to communicate in written and verbal form and maintain an acceptable standard of behavior and appearance;
- Computer skills are considered an asset;
- Valid Class 4 drivers license to transport residents to special outings is considered an asset;
- An energetic, compassionate person who enjoys working with the elderly.

Please forward your resume in confidence to
Ann MacMillan, Executive Director at ann.macmillan@reveraliving.com

Thank you for your interest.
Only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
No phone calls, please.