

Vancouver Adaptive Snow Sports Volunteer Ski/Board Instructors for Persons with Disabilities

Vancouver Adaptive Snow Sports is a volunteer organization that provides quality Learn to Ski and Ski improvement programs for students of all ages and a variety of disabilities including amputee, cerebral palsy, brain injured, mentally challenged and visually impaired.

Are you looking for a meaningful way to share you skiing / snowboarding passion?
VASS (Vancouver Adaptive Snow Sports) is looking for you!

Volunteer Ski and Board Instructors teach persons with a disability at Grouse, Seymour & Cypress Mountains. We make the mountain experience accessible to all. VASS provides the necessary training, helps you develop your own skiing / boarding skills, and offers a rewarding volunteer experience.

Requirements:

- Passionate about working with people
- Willingness to learn
- Able to get down the slopes without falling on board/skis
- Use of own vehicle
- A criminal records check and a child welfare record check

Training Provided:

- CADS Level 1

For more information:

- Visit our website at www.VASS.ca
- or call 604-646-VASS
- or E-mail: info@vass.ca