

An Aboriginal Essential Skills Journey: Planting the Seeds for Growth

Approved Facilitators

Name	Address	Phone	e-mail
Francesca de Bastiani Francesca has over 20 years experience in the development of employment and training programs for Human Resources Development Canada. She has spent the last 12 years working in the Aboriginal Programs Unit and more recently works with Métis Nation BC as an Essential Skills Curriculum Developer for the Métis Employment and Skills Centre in Abbotsford, BC Francesca is a founding member of the BC/Yukon Essential Skills Guiding Team which is a network of individuals who work with the Aboriginal Skills, Employment and Training Strategy (ASETS) to promote awareness and integration of Essential Skills into employment and training programs. She was a key partner in developing An Aboriginal Essential Skills Journey workshop and has delivered this training in multiple locations across Canada.	Curriculum Developer Métis Nation BC Abbotsford, BC	604 839-7944	franki@mnbc.ca
Lawney Chabot	ATEP Contract Manager The Prince George Nechako Aboriginal Employment &amp; Training Association 198 Kingston Street Prince George, BC V2L 1C3	250 561-1199	lawneyc@pgnaeta.bc.ca

Jan Green Jan E. Green lives and works in Port Alberni, B.C. Jan is of mixed cultural roots and a member of the Sutherland, Haiyupis, Morris family from Ahousaht B.C. through marriage. Since 1991, she has worked in Aboriginal adult education. Currently, Jan works for the Nuuchahnulth Employment and Training Program. She is designing Essential Skills curriculum based on Nuuchahnulth core values. Jan holds a Master's of Adult Learning and Global Change. She is an executive board member with the Indigenous Adult and Higher Learning Association.	Adult Alternative Learning Education Specialist Nuuchahnulth Employment and Training Program 3008 3rd Avenue, Port Alberni, BC V9Y 2A5	250 723-1331	Jan.green@nuuchahnulth.org
Sandra Ryan Sandra works as a learning strategist, developing and delivering training curricula which integrates Essential Skills into training programs. She has developed a 6 month learning package for Inuit workers at a national nickel mine and reviewed curriculum for the Native Women's Association Training Centre in the NT. Sandra was a co-creator of the Aboriginal Essential Skills Journey: Planting the Seeds for Growth workshop package, a national on-line Essential Skills training program for workers in 4 grocery occupations, and the Level 1 foundational skills program for learners entering vocational training in Namibia (Africa). In Alberta, Sandra is an instructor with the Alberta Teachers' Association. This role has her developing materials for and delivering workshops to teachers and university students throughout the province. Internationally, she has developed and facilitated workshops for instructors in Ghana and Namibia, addressing literacy, numeracy, differentiated instruction, assessment, and critical thinking.	SE Ryan Consulting Ltd. 252 Silver Brook Way, NW Calgary, AB T3B 3G8	403 247-5387	seryan@shaw.ca

Pat Salt As part of Pat's work as a learning strategist, Pat develops and delivers training curricula addressing the integration of Essential Skills into training programs. Pat has Essential Skills training experience in the mining, autobody, metalwork, woodworking, aerospace, textiles, grocery and mink farming industries. She has also written curriculum for a work readiness program implemented in Inuvik, completed a 6 month learning package for Inuit workers at a national nickel mine, developed the manual for an Aboriginal Awareness program delivered to resource companies working in the Oil Sands, and reviewed curriculum for the Native Women's Association Training Centre in the NT. Pat's latest ventures include the co-creation of the Aboriginal Essential Skills Journey: Planting the Seeds for Growth workshop package, a national on-line Essential Skills training program for workers in 4 grocery occupations, and the Level 1 foundational skills program for learners entering vocational training in Namibia (Africa). Internationally, Pat has developed integrated Essential Skills curricula and training approaches in Ghana, Cameroon, Zimbabwe, Malawi, South Africa, Namibia, Slovakia and Chile.	PLS Consulting Suite 242, 919 Centre Street, NW Calgary, AB T2E 2P6	403 230-8265	p.salt@shaw.ca
---	--	---------------------	---